TO OUR PARENTS

Whose guiding hand has led us
O'er many rocky trails

Throughout our high school days,
We dedicate this CHEQUAMEGON as a symbol

For his "generous help" in those important ways.

With thanks and respect,

SENIOR MEMOIRS . . .

The class of '68 enjoyed a successful Senior Year, taking all into account. Although our beknighted Homecoming float did not make it through the deluge during the Homecoming parade, our anticipation for the rest of the year was not dampened in the least. We enjoyed viewing the traditional events of the school year from our lofty positions as Seniors, and most of our classmates won honors for our class in scholarship, sports, forensics, and music. Each school organization gained momentum in its activities through the efforts of zealous Senior members, and we can modestly say that the class of '68 really made things move this year. The Junior-Senior Banquet proved to be a pleasant interlude, and was enjoyed by all. Our thanks to the Juniors for their hospitality. The long-anticipated class trip was a memorable vacation for each of the Seniors. All enjoyed the two carefree days in the Twin Cities, where we got an advance dose of pleasant spring weather. The graduation exercises climaxed the four years happily spent in high school, and, in fact, the first growing phase in our lives. With optimism for the future, and confidence in ourselves to shape our destinies, we now leave dear WHS to go our separate ways.

We commenced our Junior year anticipating all the hard work that lay ahead of us. The bonfire kicked off the Homecoming activities Friday night, Oct. 6. On Homecoming day, a bedraggled but spirited parade slushed down main street of Washburn. At the parade's end our class float was awarded first place - mainly because it was the only one that came through the downpour intact. The football victory saved the day and helped to make the dance, under the street lights of Victory Lane, with the music by the "Soul Seekers," a success.

With the coming of spring we presented our banquet for the Seniors and faculty in accordance with the theme, "Evening in Venice." Beautiful decorations made our prom, "Athenian Interlude," the big event of the year.

Now that the year has ended, we all look most eagerly to next fall when we will begin the ordeal of earning our diplomas.

W.H.S. continued to function as we, the Sophomore class once again invaded her halls. The usual diligent studying, for which our class is noted, was interrupted by plans for the Homecoming activities. Our choice of queen candidate proved a good one, for Chickie Malinoski reigned over the festivities with David Justice as king.

On October 27th, the long awaited initiation day came, and the Freshmen were broken in and legally admitted to high school life by the heartless Sophomores.

The Thanksgiving dance which we sponsored was the outcome of our very first attempt at decorating. Music was by the "Soule."

The necessity of enlarging our treasury resulted in various projects throughout the year. The selling of booster buttons and Zip Code directories helped somewhat. We are looking forward to our junior year and hope our treasury will be as well prepared for it as we are.

CLASS OFFICERS
M. Lindsey, President; K. Cook, Secretary; L. Niemi, Treasurer; B. Olson, V. President.

The Freshman Class started the year off right with the election of officers. They proved to be pretty efficient executives; so, we accomplished a lot in our first year of high school.

As Homecoming time rolled around, our class became involved in several activities. We elected Diane Haugen as our queen candidate, and we worked diligently on our Homecoming float--which despite our valiant efforts only placed second.

Initiation was kind of a drag for most of us, but we didn't let on because we knew the Sophomores would be disappointed if we didn't act scared. They had a smash of a record hop afterwards, and we all had a great time. After basketball season, we decided we'd better have a return party before the Sophomores had a fit. It turned out pretty well for our first official dance, even if the profit was low.

All things considered, it proved to be a very good year for the Class of '71, and we're all looking forward to our reign as Sophomores at W. H. S.

In its fourth year at WHS, the National Honor Society put in a relatively active season. Highlighting the year was the Fourth Annual Induction Ceremony, held on April 11, 1968. As a major departure from the induction ceremonies of the past years, we showed pictures in which we had posed beforehand, depicting the bad qualities of inferior students as opposed to the better qualities we seek in a prospective candidate. We were proud to have Mr. Walter Norlin as our guest speaker. Now with our new members safely taken into the fold, we are sure of having an active Honor Society next year to carry forth its respected virtues.

The musical organizations at WHS had an active year. In October, the band marched in the Bayfield Apple Festival. The concert band and glee club gave three joint concerts through the year. The successful Solo-Ensemble Festival culminated in the State Music Festival on May 4th, and the entire band and glee club played in the festival on May 11th. Ending the year's events were Memorial Day ceremonies for which the band played.

The footlights beckoned to some 40 Washburn High students this year, and under the direction of Miss Mary Carol Foley all enjoyed a fun-filled one-act play season. On the evening of October 21, 1967, the Washburn High "players" presented three one-act plays: The Valiant, Red and Yellow, and Riders to the Sea. The Valiant was selected to represent our school at the Indian Head Contest at Ondossagon, and from there it progressed to the district contest at Mellen, where the play received a "B" rating. Cast and crew alike agree that we enjoyed an exceptionally fine season.

This year's forensics program has been another valuable experience in the lives of Washburn students. Of the 14 speakers later entered in the District Contest at Northland College, we had 50% representation at State competition.

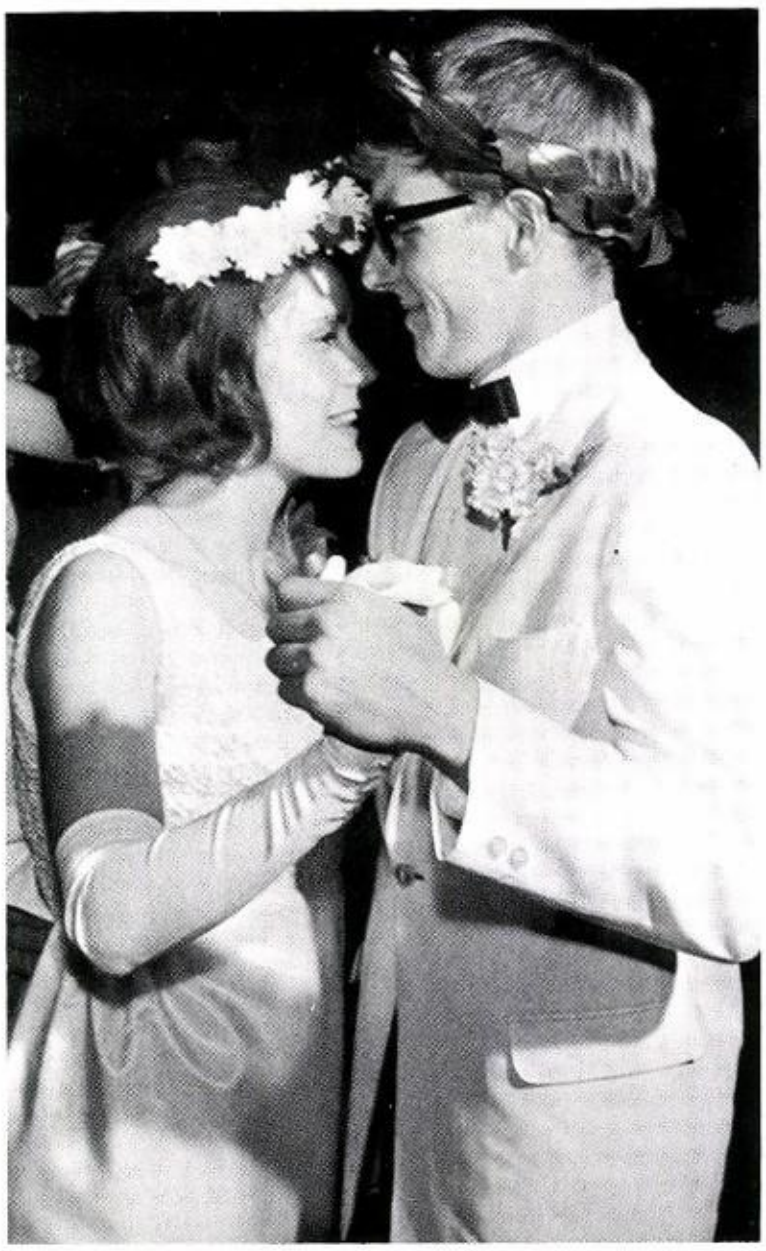
Banquet Entertainment ...

A very successful Junior-Senior Banquet was planned by the extremely active and productive Junior Class. The charming Venetian setting made the delicious Italian food taste even better. Immediately following the supper, an inspiring talk was given by Rev. J. Hovland, and several musical selections were presented. The banquet, which was held on the 27th of May in the Washburn Gymnasium, was mainly prepared by the Junior mothers.

INTERLUDE



During the coronation, Ron Jack and Micki Nelson were crowned king and queen by last year's royalty, Rick Kurschner and Janet Tast. Members of the royal court were: Peggy Pearson and Rick Holman, Mary Schwenzfeier and LeRoy Roberts, Anne Maassen and Mike Haugen, Mary Sue Lindsey and Jim Bratley.

Athenian Interlude was an evening of enchantment for those who attended the 1968 Junior Prom on May 18. The gym was transformed into the elegant city of Athens featuring ivy-entwined pillars surrounding a spacious dance floor, while draperies of white and royal purple served to heighten the Grecian atmosphere.

CHEQUAMEGON FOREST CHAMPS 1967

Under the leadership of first year coach, Denis Black, the Castle Guards continued their domination of the Chequamegon Forest League with a perfect 6-0 record. Strong blocking and powerful running paved the way for a state record of 34 straight victories.

In conference play, Washburn's stiffest test came at South Shore, where behind the breakaway running of Rick Holman and Bill Lindsey, they hammered out a 46 to 27 victory, in a game played in almost unbearable heat.

The Guards' leading scorer for the season was Bill Lindsey with 89 points, followed by Rick Holman and Jim Cleary, each with 45, and Jim Celmer with 27.

'67-'68 VARSITY HIGHLIGHTS

Recovering from a slow start, Washburn came on strong to finish the season with a 9-3 conference record, good for second place in the Indianhead Conference. Overall, the Guards tallied 13 wins and 5 losses. Coach Gasperini's cager's bright hopes for the championship crown were ended after two hard fought losses to a tough South Shore team. Several highlights of the season were Washburn's 105-70 victory over Cable and the selection of Jim Cleary to the all-conference team.

This year's team was led by co-captains Jim Cleary and Rick Kurschner. And strongly supported by Seniors Kim Lattimer, Jack Olson, Bill Lindsey, and David Day; by Juniors Jim Branzell, LeRoy Roberts, Bruce Peterson, Ron Jack, Rick Holman; and by Freshman Tom Stauffer.

Much credit goes to Mr. Gasperini without whose brilliant coaching and iron nerves, the team would not have been successful.

JUNIOR VARSITY

As the season closed, Washburn's Junior Varsity held a successful conference record and gained much valuable experience in preparation for action as the future varsity players.

SEASON SUMMARY

Leading hitters for the team this season were Bill Olson with .357, and Ron Olson with .300.

The 1968 baseball season started out with success--victory over Ondossagon 11-10. Bill Olson picked up the win with relief from Wally Jack.

The next game found the Guards defeated by Bayfield 2-1. Even though Tom Malinoski pitched good ball, Washburn could only muster a single run in the sixth inning.

From then on, the scores were: South Shore 3, Washburn 0; Ondossagon 7, Washburn 5; Washburn 13, Bayfield 5; Washburn 5, South Shore 1.

Ending the season with a 3-3 record, Washburn tied for second place in the Northern Division of the Indianhead League.

In sub-district tournament play at Port Wing, the Guards lost to the South Shore Cardinals by a score of 4-1.

SKIING SEASON

Sporting a capable group of skiers, Washburn sent its team of six into the first Northern Ski League meet on January 13, at White Cap. In the meet, Washburn placed third out of seven teams.

The next meet, an invitational, placed the Guard skiers second in a field of seven teams. Tony Benedict captured second place honors in individual standings.

In the next NSL meet on January 27, Washburn skied to a fifth place standing.

On February 3, in the final NSL meet, WHS placed sixth.

An invitational at Hardscrable ended the regular ski season.

Highlighting the '68 ski season was Washburn's 5th placing among 18 teams in the 1968 W.I.A.A. State Ski Meet held at Rib Mountain. Bill Lindsey placed thirteenth and Jim Bratley placed eighteenth out of over 100 skiers to lead Washburn in individual standings.
